

VISION

Children at Windmill Hill will be inspired to know and understand more about the world around them. Their strong emotional intelligence will enable them to make informed choices that will develop their sense of personal achievement, well-being and safety, and relationships with others.

Knowledge and Understanding

Children at Windmill Hill will be literate and numerate with key skills across all curriculum areas. They will have a range of memorable experiences that will enable them to know and understand the world around them.

Emotional Intelligence

Children at Windmill Hill will be confident, self-motivated learners who will have a positive outlook on learning and life. They will work collaboratively, showing an awareness of the needs of others.

Well-being

Children at Windmill Hill will lead healthy lifestyles, making informed choices that enable them to feel safe and secure in their environment.

Teaching and Learning

All children at Windmill Hill will be inquisitive, confident, self-motivated learners who have a positive outlook on learning and life. Teachers will engage children with inspiring and challenging lessons that facilitate learning.

Assessment

All children at Windmill Hill will have a clear understanding of the next steps in their learning and will set goals that they believe can be achieved. Teachers will strive to understand the skills, knowledge and understanding acquired by each child. They will also use thorough assessment systems and tools, underpinned by professional judgement, to identify areas for development and raise standards in all curriculum areas.

Curriculum

Children at Windmill Hill will be provided with an exciting and stimulating curriculum that provides a wide range of experiences. Clear skills progression, across all subject areas, will ensure that standards and expectations are raised for all children. The curriculum will be inspired by children, and the world they live in, to deepen their knowledge and understanding of the local, national and global community.

Inclusion

All children at Windmill Hill will be provided with opportunities to extend their knowledge and understanding, taking into account their individual needs. Thorough identification tools will enable highly skilled staff to remove barriers to learning. The school will communicate effectively, working in partnership with parents and outside agencies to ensure that the needs of every child are met.
